Herbert Demond York (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, filed this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging violations of his constitutional rights as a pretrial detainee at Florence County Detention Center (“FCDC”) against above-named defendants (“Defendants”).

This matter comes before the court on Defendants’ motion to dismiss brought pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 12(b)(6), in which Defendants move for dismissal of this case, in part, due to Plaintiff’s failure to exhaust his administrative remedies. [ECF No. 15]. Pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), the court advised Plaintiff of the motion to dismiss procedures and the possible consequences if he failed to respond adequately to Defendants’ motion. [ECF No. 16]. Plaintiff filed a response to

Defendants' motion, attaching an affidavit that, in part, addresses his efforts to exhaust his administrative remedies. [See ECF Nos. 34, 34-1].¹

Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), and Local Civ. Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d) (D.S.C.), this matter has been assigned to the undersigned for all pretrial proceedings. For the undersigned to consider Plaintiff's affidavit evidence on the issue of exhaustion, Defendants' motion to dismiss must be converted to one for summary judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(d) and the parties must be afforded an opportunity to present relevant materials.²

The record as it currently stands on the issue of exhaustion consists of Plaintiff's argument as found in his response to Defendants' motion to dismiss, as follows:

² Defendants' motion to dismiss is converted to a motion for summary judgment only as to the issue of exhaustion. Otherwise, the motion to dismiss remains a motion to dismiss as to all other issues.

Plaintiff has exhaust[ed] his administrative remedies, but ha[s] not received the proper response. Therefor[e] Plaintiff submitted a writ[ten] letter to the Inspector of the Jail as well [as] to Capt. Patton and the major of Florence County Detention Center. And did not receive a response.

[ECF No. 34 at 7]. In addition, Plaintiff has submitted an affidavit, attesting:

I [informed] Cpl. Jennings [and] Sgt. Neal and wrote a[] grievance and letter to the jail major and Capt. Patton. I [did not] receive any response. I also notif[ied] Sgt. Lopez, Lt. Andrea Capers, Lt. Femming and other staff members at Florence County Detention Center. . . . I [tried] to make all attempts to exhaust administrative remedies but was denied by all officials.

[ECF No. 34-1 at 2].³

Defendants are hereby directed to review the underlying administrative file of this matter and provide the court with an affidavit or declaration of a qualified individual, with relevant copies of any pertinent filings, addressing the steps Plaintiff was required to complete to exhaust his administrative remedies and Plaintiff's efforts to do so, related to the incident on January 17, 2019, and thereafter, including Plaintiff's allegations that he was retaliated against for filing certain legal papers by being sent to the maximum segregation unit, being written up for a disciplinary infraction, having his possessions taken from him, and being placed on a restricted diet. These materials are to be filed no later than July 24, 2020. By the same date, Plaintiff is directed to provide this court with any other materials relevant to this issue, including any letters in Plaintiff's possession concerning his efforts to exhaust his administrative remedies.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
